Mobilising Regions: Territorial Strategies for Growth

With this letter we confirm that Omid Khazaeian, from IUST (Iran University of Science and Technology), has been award the Bill Ogden Memorial Prize for his paper “New form of regional cooperation, new spatial structure; Electronic cooperation and the rise of mega city-regions” written under the supervision of Assistant Professor Reza Kheyroddin, the prize consists of a place to attend and present the paper at our forthcoming Winter Conference “Mobilising Regions: Territorial Strategies for Growth” organised by Regional Studies Association which will take place in Holiday Inn Bloomsbury on the 22nd November 2013.

The Regional Studies Association offers no financial or other support to the participant unless the delegate has already been informed in writing that they have been awarded a conference bursary (a free conference place only).

The conference is important to the field of regional development and economics.

We would be pleased to provide additional information that you may require when considering the participant's application for a visa.

Yours faithfully

Lesa Reynolds
